

Kim Bauml
Senior Care Consultant/Owner
Options for Senior Living, LLC

The special bond Kim had with her grandparents helped form the respect and admiration she enjoys with the seniors she serves today.

Kim's many years of experience assisting older adults and their families include:

- Family Advisor and caregiver for Comfort Keepers and Choice Connections
- Served as the Program and Travel Coordinator for the Traverse City Senior Center, providing adult recreation, special event planning, fitness, education and travel opportunities for seniors.
- As a case manager, she assisted families in finding resources and housing.
- Has experience in residential and vacation property management.

With a long history of service to seniors and their families, Kim has a passion for helping others. At Options for Senior Living LLC, she assists families in the senior housing selection process from beginning to end.

Although many older adults prefer to stay in their own homes, it is not always possible.

At Options for Senior Living LLC, we make the transition to a senior care community as satisfying and stress-free as possible. Our knowledgeable Senior Care Consultants are prepared to help guide family members through the assessment process, taking time to listen and understand individual needs and preferences.

Options for Senior Living LLC offers compassionate support and guidance through an often emotional and confusing time. We use all available resources to guide clients to the right place.

Options for Senior Living LLC connects older adults with opportunities for housing that are specifically suited to meet their needs.
